are sanctioned for life and therefore

- 1) are not allowed to enter any FIAP salon or event,
- 2) are not eligible to receive any FIAP distinction, award or recognition,
- 3) are not eligible to be involved in the running or organization or appointment as judge of any event under FIAP patronage or FIAP Auspices and
- 4) are not eligible to hold an official position in FIAP and
- 5) will lose any FIAP distinction formerly received and any further distinction will be denied.

Important reminder to organizers (see FIAP DOC 038/2023 paragraph II.4))

It is reminded that "before the judging, all the participant's names must be compared to those registered on the FIAP "Red List". Should there be any instances of an entrant being included in the FIAP "Red List", then the pictures of the concerned person cannot be judged, and entry fees will not be refunded. If salon is for prints, the prints of the concerned person will not be returned to the concerned person unless specific return postage is received by the organization. Entry fees already submitted will not be considered return postage. If this control is not done properly and acceptances or awards are attributed to persons listed on the "Red List", the organizer in fault will be fined with an amount equaling the salon fee paid for patronage and/or recognition. Organizers found to be flagrantly and/or repeatedly ignoring the FIAP "Red List" shall be denied future FIAP patronage."
